

Basketball Campaign Begins At Western---Eastern Meets A. and N. Preps

WESTERN GETS OUT MANY PLAYERS FOR BASKETBALL WORK

Peine and Sergeant, of Last Year's Five, Lead New Candidates.

EASTERN PLAYS GAME TODAY

Meets Army and Navy Eleven. Two Scholastic Battles on for Tomorrow.

By BRYAN MORSE.

Western High School has opened up its basketball campaign, came thirty candidates for the team coming out for practice three times a week. The Red and White five which won the Interscholastic League title last year is already planning a big schedule for this winter, and is expecting to develop a number of players for the team this year.

Of the veterans from last year, Capt. Raymond Peck, Lester Peine, Stuart Smith, John Welchell, Richard Sergeant, Harry Chamberlain, and Paul Culbertson are on hand. With the exception of Peine and Sergeant the others are playing football at present, but thirty responded to the call sent out Tuesday, and for the past two days good practices have been held.

The change in the basketball rules for this season, which will materially affect the schoolboy quints, in regard to dribbling and back shooting, is being tried out across the creek. Western is handicapped by having a small gymnasium for basketball work, and is expecting to play the bulk of its battles on foreign floors this year.

Several new players have reported, many of whom are first-year men. Jewett, White, and Pepper, members of last year's Force School five, are in the squad. Larner, McIntyre, Thompson, McVey, Gardner, Gleason, Hennessey, and Hume are numbered among the new players.

Western loses the services of Edwin Giblin this year. The other boys of last year's championship five, Fuller and Welch, will be missed in more ways than one. Back is another who will be among the missing this season.

Eastern sets its first trial in a game today against the Army and Navy Prep eleven at Friends Field, on the Tenleytown road. The Preps have a heavy eleven, and one that will give any of the scholastic teams a run for their money.

Recent practice against St. Albans showed Eastern to be light but fast. Coach Green, of St. Albans, paid the Eastern team a high tribute in declaring it one of the gamest eleven he has seen in action.

Tomorrow Central tackles the Episcopal High school team at Alexandria. Episcopal has a fast team and one heavy enough to battle anything sent down from Washington. Both Tech and Western were defeated by the Alexandria team, who have gotten ahead with their work since early season to the point where they are more than ten days farther advanced than the Washington schools.

St. Albans is taking on Western in its first game of the season. The annual battle between the schools is always interesting and closely fought. Coach Green has lost many of his year's team. Northrup failed to return, as did Carey, a lineman. Peyton March went to Lafayette. Holmes graduated, too, and Castle and Daniels are out of the line-up with bad knees.

Western will be without the services of several regulars. Bridget, Rohrer and Grayson are out with injuries. Taken all in all, and collecting all the bits, the battle should be well worth seeing. The game starts at 10 o'clock.

Solkans Will Have Quint This Season

The Solkan Athletic Association has organized a basketball team for the coming season and will be in charge of Manager Marcoron and Captain Bower. The association should have a good team to represent it, as it has the following men to pick from: Cornell, Bowen, Gallier, Landey, Morris, Friel, West, Goldstein, Caton, Neacey, Korner, Marcoron, Jones, Ragan, and Kendrick. Mr. Marcoron would like to arrange games with some good teams. Address Mr. J. Marcoron, 8 Kann, Sons & Co., Eighth street and Pennsylvania avenue.

WESBECHER INJURED IN LAFAYETTE GAME

Washington and Jefferson's Captain Has Dislocated Shoulder From Tackling.

WASHINGTON, Pa., Oct. 15.—The victory of Washington and Jefferson over Lafayette was marred somewhat by an injury to Captain Wesbecher, of the Red and Black. The local center, in making a flying tackle down the field alighted heavily on his left side, and was forced to leave the game.

An X-ray examination showed that the victim had suffered a dislocation of his left elbow, making it certain that he will be out of play for some time. It is not considered likely that he will be able to play against Yale two weeks hence, but it is predicted that he will be shaped for the contest with Pitt on November 9. He will be saved for the latter contest unless he is in normal condition no effort will be made to have him enter the struggle at New Haven.

General satisfaction prevails over the victory over Lafayette. W. & J. was outwitted in every department, but its superiority in all departments was pronounced. The victory is regarded as deserved even by Lafayette supporters.

The most pleasing feature of the Washington and Jefferson play was the excellence of its running attack. Lafayette succeeded at times in breaking up the Red and Black forward pass offensive, but when Felwell's men could not gain through an aerial raid, Quarterback shifted to a straight-line attack and Washington and Jefferson pierced the Lafayette defense for gains in this manner.

Improvement in interference, however, is needed somewhat, and the coaches will endeavor to develop this play during the next two weeks. Aside from Wesbecher none of the players were hurt seriously.

Columbia Will Race Yale Just the Same

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—Harry A. Fisher, graduate manager of athletics, yesterday denied emphatically the rumors that the Columbia-Yale crew race would be canceled because of the loss of four veterans from the Blue and White varsity squad. Fisher said that Columbia doesn't arrange contests only to cancel them when the possibility of defeat arises.

"Although the race isn't officially a certainty, there is no ground to believe that we will not row Yale on Lake Wadsworth, November 12. The faculty sanction for the contest will be given next Tuesday," said Fisher.

VIRGINIA HUSTLES FOR CRIMSON GAME

Orange and Blue Expects to Gain As Much Against Harvard As Against Yale.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., Oct. 15.—That Virginia's style of play against Harvard will be no different from that used so successfully against Yale and other colleges seems to be assured. In the practice on Lambeth Field yesterday afternoon the varsity was not scrimmaged, but devoted the afternoon to building up a successful offense against the Crimson; the end run from punt formation, which has always been Virginia's most successful play, was given with a few minor variations, but the same basic principles.

This is the play which received such favorable mention from Walter Camp recently in connection with the Virginia team, and it is safe to say that the four men, Virginia is playing back on this play will give Harvard a good deal of trouble. Here are four possibilities for carrying the ball, four different routes to take—result, a Crimson quandary and likely Virginia gain.

Feeling at this city of a victory for local colors is very hopeful, and as reasons Thurman, Mayer, the two Coleman, Billwell, and Ed Anderson are given. Each and every one of these men is a seasoned football player, and long up the field and are willing to be rep of the opposing team, even though that be John Harvard's prospect.

A good many of the students here have already expressed their intention of accompanying the team to Cambridge, and some claim to be willing to bet money on the result at very slight odds—such as 3 to 2, but this feeling is not very prevalent.

Penn to Keep Rowing, But Cuts Appropriations

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 15.—At a meeting of the athletic association board of the University of Pennsylvania yesterday the question of abolishing rowing as a major sport was taken up. It was decided to cut down on all appropriations, but keeping rowing as a major sport. However, no fall regatta will be held, and rowing expenses will be cut down as much as possible. The varsity letter was awarded to the following men of last year's crew: J. V. Merrick, H. Shoemaker, W. E. Chickering, C. L. Bore, R. B. Garvin, G. W. Pepper, L. P. Scott, H. Butler, E. E. and J. Foster, and W. R. Littleton.

DUMBARTON MEETS COLUMBIA C. C. MEN

Return Tennis Match Scheduled to Be Played Tomorrow Afternoon.

Dumbarton Club tennis players are expecting to do better in the return match with the Columbia Country Club team tomorrow in the engagement arranged at the Columbia Club.

Earlier in the season Dumbarton received a setback, and since then has been anxious to show improvement. Six matches have been carded, three in singles and two in doubles. Play will start at 2 o'clock.

Columbia's teams will be as follows: C. H. Doyle, H. E. Doyle, Paul Treanor; C. T. Chapman, E. D. Leech, and C. A. Slater.

Dumbarton will be represented by Douglas Hillier, A. J. Gore, A. W. Howard, George Lewis, Paymaster Hancock, and Ezra Gould.

The Columbia team has been strengthened by Paul Treanor, Dumbarton, on the other hand, will have Hillier on its roster.

Yale Players Do Best Work Coaching Teams

Former Yale football players continue to hold their popularity as coaches, notwithstanding that the Blue Gridiron star has failed to shine with his usual brilliancy during the past few seasons.

A canvass of the leading colleges and schools of the country has demonstrated that the New Haven university has more former players acting in coaching capacities than any other college or university famous in football annals.

Among the other Eastern institutions, Princeton, Dartmouth, Pennsylvania, Lafayette and Syracuse are all well represented in the coaching field. In sharp contrast is the fact that Harvard and Cornell players do not apparently devote much time to coaching after graduation.

In the West, Chicago and Michigan lead in this respect, although there is a fair sprinkling of Minnesota, Wisconsin, Notre Dame, and Illinois alumni on the list.

Yale Denies Rumors Of Split in Coaches

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 15.—The football outlook was brighter here today than it has been in weeks. The varsity has shown a return to life, and rumors that the team was split into factions were vehemently denied.

"Coaches and men are working in perfect harmony," said Nelson Talbot, last year's champion.

WELSH WILL RETIRE AFTER FOUR BOUTS

July Fourth Next Will See Lightweight Champion in His Last Ring Engagement.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—Freddie Welsh, lightweight champion, is going to retire, according to his manager, Harry Pollok, today.

"Welsh will defend his title against the four best boys in the division—Johnny Dundee, Charley White, Joe Mandot, and Willie Ritchie—between now and the Fourth of July," said Pollok. "Then he's done, and they can fight it out among themselves."

Brown Will Referee.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—Bill Brown, well known in Eastern boxing circles, will referee the Frank Moran-Jim Coffey fight at the Garden next Tuesday night. Both the principals today were reported rounding into form.
